MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 7 October 1968

Godfrey referred to material from our Embassy in Mexico, some of which has begun to appear in the press, suggesting that some of the student activity against the Mexican government is being funded by Mexican political oppositionists. Godfrey noted that one major issue in connection with whether violence will be curtailed during the Olympics relates to the ability of the student leadership to control the rank and file.

Godfrey advised that the paper on Jordan's security posture is ready.

DDCI briefed on Friday's SIG meeting. He advised that Under Secretary Katzenbach wishes SIG to take up the Arab-Israeli situation in order to pass along a coherent policy to the next Administration. [REDACTED] base study is to be completed by 15 December, although the need for further cost analysis will probably require additional work. The paper on contingency planning in connection with Eastern Europe will require more polishing, particularly in connection with ideas for pre-emptive political and psychological planning in Europe and with aspects of the Berlin situation. DDCI advised that he discussed with General Wheeler the need for a special Estimate or a DIA/CIA paper pertaining to Yugoslav reactions to Soviet military intervention. He indicated that an earlier ONE Staff Memorandum may provide the basis for such a paper, and he will advise later.
